DECLARATION OF ADAM PIERCE

I, Adam Pierce, under penalty of perjury, swear/affirm as follows:

1. My name is Adam Pierce.
2. I was employed by TSE Group as a server at B.B. King Blues Club ("B.B. King") from December 2006 until March 2007.

3. Throughout my employment with B.B. King, I consistently noticed that I was not paid for all time worked in a given pay period.

4. B.B. King keeps track of hourly employees' time through an electronic "clock-in" and "clock-out" system. Employees clock in when they arrive at work and clock out when they finish working. Nevertheless, at the end of each week, I am consistently paid for significantly less hours than I clocked in for that pay period. A substantial amount of this time is overtime and should be paid at one and a half times my regular rate.

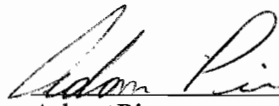

5. B.B. King's practice is to charge an employee for a customer's bill when that customer does not pay his bill. For example, when a customer walks out without paying his bill (a "walk-out"), or if the restaurant forgives the customers' bill because of a long wait or a problem with a waiter's service, the restaurant forces the waiter to pay for the customer's bill.

6. I noticed several employees forced by B. B. King to pay for walk-out customers' bills.

7. B.B. King once forced me to pay for a customer's entire dinner because I accidentally dropped a glass of wine that was intended for that customer. The bill was approximately $80. Another time B.B. King charged me for a customer's meal when the customer refused to pay for his meal. The meal was approximately $60.

I swear/affirm, under penalty of perjury, that the above and foregoing information is true and correct.
